

DIE ANOTHER DAY OR WALKING WITH DYING-SPHERES

The challenges faced by stem cells to fulfil the promise of regenerative medicine are many. The cells need to first survive the environment into which they are transported before dividing, differentiating and migrating to colonise the tissue. This 7y on the wall documentary traces the fates of corneal stem cell-enriched spheres as they struggle to perform these tasks, fulfil their promise and achieve their ultimate destiny.

Category: Surgical Technique